FORTY-SIXTH YEAR | Uncle Sam Needs You—Buy Defense Bonds | CANYON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1942 | Uncle Sam Needs You—Buy Defense Bonds | NUMBER 49

Men 20 to 44 Years Will Register Monday

Bond Sale Quota Is Not Being Filled

All Citizens Urged to Buy Stamps and Bonds to Help Nation in Defense Fight

With a quota of $243,000 in Defense Stamps and Bonds, Randall county is running behind in the monthly allotment. On a monthly basis, $20,500 in Stamps and Bonds should be sold. During January the total sale was $18,328.95. During the first nine days of February the sales amounted to $7,370.

At the present time 72 citizens are members of the Buy-A-Bond-A-Month club. Others wishing to join are asked to see R. H. Wright at the First National Bank. The treasury department is asking all business houses to work out a plan for handling employee sales of stamps and bonds. Under this plan each employee agrees for the withholding of so much of his salary for the purpose of buying bonds.

From May 1, 1941 to December 31, 1941, the total sales of stamps and bonds amounted to $52,900.70 However, this does not apply on the $243,000 quota for 1942.

Stamps are on sale at both the college and public schools and at a dozen or more business houses. The sale of stamps at the college from Dec. 13 to Feb. 1, amounted to $731.70; at the public schools the sale from Oct. 15 to Feb. 1 amounted to $606.50.

Mr. Wright urges that every citizen of Randall county do his best in seeing that the allotment for the county be met in order to carry on the defense work of the nation.

Men in Co. F Making Record

Capt. W. E. Lockhart in Visit to Old Command Is Impressed by the Record

Captain W. E. Lockhart took time off last week from his duties as Resident Auditor of Camp Wolters at Mineral Wells, to visit his former command at Camp Bowie, Brownwood. Captain Lockhart was commanding officer of Company F for several years before the company was inducted into federal service in November, 1940. He was first transferred to another company after a few months at Camp Bowie, and then placed in the auditing department.

Captain Lockhart reports as follows regarding the men of Company F:

About 60 of the 73 men who entered the service in Canyon are still in the army.

There have been few cases of serious illness in the company, and none have died.

Practically every man in the company has been promoted one or more grades; four of the Company F men have been commissioned as officers and are rendering very satisfactory services.

The hospital records do not show a single case of veneral disease from this company.

No man in Company F has been charged with AWOL or desertion.

There is not a company in the army that can show a better record. "I am proud of these boys, and believe that all citizens of Randall county also are proud of their records," writes Captain Lockhart.

Boy Scout Week Is Being Held By Local Troops

Boy Scouts of Canyon were honor guests at the Sunday morning worship services at the First Methodist Church to inaugurate the beginning of Boy Scout week. Wm. C. Cox was in charge of the Scouts and their part of the service.

Scouts of troop 31 are in charge of the paper drive in Canyon and last week delivered their first truck load in Amarillo where they received the small sum of $4.09 for a whole truck load of papers which were tied in 25 pound bundles. The boys are using this money for buying scout suits for members of their troop who are unable to furnish their own.

Mr. Cox explains that the drive is purely a Patriotic move and all people of Canyon should consider it as such when calling on the boys to get the papers.

The back part of the Red Cross room has been given the boys for use in collecting the papers and anyone having papers are asked to take them to the building instead of having the boys call for them. Leave all newspapers flat, or if you have cardboard cartons that the papers will fit in place them flat in them. If the cartons are too large or too small for the newspapers, tear them up so that they lay flat and take them with your newspapers. No waste papers are wanted.

After the boys get the papers collected they have to tie them in bundles of 25 pounds with good strong twine, so you see the boys really have to work for the $4.09. There are many ways that they could earn easier money, but they are doing this for Uncle Sam, so the least the citizens can do is to co-operate to the fullest extent with the boys in this patriotic work.

MacArthur and Shaves Seem To Go Together

Sam Hinchee's next shave depends upon General Douglas MacArthur, or whatever it takes to recapture Manila.

Hinchee, a brother of Mrs. S. V. Wirt of Canyon, lives at Shawnee, Okla. He ran off from home at the age of 16 to join up with our forces during the Spanish American War. He helped hoist the Stars and Stripes over the Philippine capital.

And he won't shave until it's there again.

Slander on Red Cross Actions Is Given Denial

In response to statements regarding the benefits derived from the Red Cross supplies furnished to men in the service, a general letter was received this week by the local Red Cross Chairman from the American Red Cross headquarters in Washington, D. C.

The letter, in part, follows:

"It always has been the policy of the Red Cross, that no charge shall ever be made to any serviceman for any Red Cross article or service which is furnished from the funds or supplies contributed to the Red Cross. If any serviceman has ever been asked to pay for sweaters or other articles, the person making such sale was acting wholly contrary to Red Cross policy and instructions. If any such sale should now be made the Red Cross desires complete information concerning the incident and the situation will be promptly and vigorously corrected.

"During the last war, the Red Cross, at the request of general headquarters of the A. E. F. established certain lodging facilities at a few points along the lines of communication. At definite request of the A. E. F., a charge, which was well below cost, was made to the men on leave who desired to use these facilities. In these instances, the Red Cross was making available, at the request of the Army, an additional service below cost. It was not making a charge for any articles or services derived from funds or materials contributed for the Red Cross program for the benefit of servicemen."

Farmers to End Meetings Tonite

"Food Front" Campaign in Randall County Conducted by County Agent Upchurch

Thursday evening of this week marks the closing of a series of nine community meetings on the "Food Front" in Randall county. The last meeting is being held at Umbarger. The 1942 food production and other problems of interest to farmers has been the theme of all the meetings. The Randall County Farm Bureau, the County Agricultural Conservation Association, the County War Board and County Agent W. H. Upchurch have been co-operating in the meetings to acquaint all farmers with the provisions of the farm program for 1942 and a discussion of the Randall county food production problems.

Attendance of farmers at all the meetings has been very gratifying to those in charge of the meetings.

Reports from all communities indicate that Randall county will exceed all food pledges, made in November, with the possible exception of milk. The county total pledge for eggs and pork was well over the quota requested by the State War Board and the indications are now that even the pledged figures will be exceeded.

A conservative estimate on the number of eggs to be produced in Randall county in 1942 is 700,000 dozen. This indicates in some measure how Randali county farmers are responding to the call for more food production. It has been well demonstrated that farmers in this area do not need any high pressure solicitation or regimentation measures to do all they can.

Under the present Agricultural Conservation program and the buying under the Lend-Lease program farmers are assured a fair price for their increased production of several food items that have been below a parity level for the past several years.

This incentive plus a reasonable understanding of the needs of the country is all that is required for Randall county farmers to do their part on the "Food Front." The principal handicaps to increased production in 1942, according to leading farmers, is the shortage of skilled fam labor and the shortage of new machinery to replace worn out machines.

The campaign to repair all farm machinery has met with a fine response. Something like three times the normal number of repair parts were purchased for the month of January. It is thought that most of the farm machinery will be in repair well in advance of the usual time for such work. Farmers who have not bought repair parts are being urged to do so at once in order to avoid breakdowns at harvest time. R. B. Gist, chairman of the local USDA War Board, states that farmers of Randall county are unusually well acquainted with the needs for increased production and they know pretty well how to go about getting the job done.

Buffs Will Meet Tech

Conference Tilts at Burton Gym

Tech Hopes to Upset Buffs Tonight; Cowboys, Flagstaff, Tempe Here For Games

After nearly a decade of aloofness since athletic relations were severed, West Texas State Buffaloes and Texas Tech Red Raiders will tangle on the court here tonight under the banner of the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

What has happened hitherto this season may be forgotten when these natural rivals clash. True, the Buffs are leading the Border Conference cage race and Tech is just one game behind, but it would be a bitter contest under any set-up.

Coach Berl Huffman scouted the locals here Friday and Coach Al Baggett had a look at Tech Saturday—both clubs defeating the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys with ease. Tech will have a small advantage in speed and the Buffaloes in height, but the popular idea that the Buffs should win by a substantial margin has no basis in fact. The Raiders have seven letter men and they are from the same region as the Buffs.

This game will be nerve shattering for players, officials, and fans because of the extraordinary interest in this renewal of athletic relations. While the Buffaloes had a taste of mob reactions in their recent appearance in Madison Square Garden, the 2500 fans who will crowd into Buffalo Burton Gymnasium here tonight will be far more capable of communicating their feelings to the players.

Both clubs have weathered semester examinations and should be ready for the fireworks.

A small number of reserved seats have been placed on sale at the college business office. But some fans must be disappointed because the gymnasium is not adequate for a game of such intense popular interest. The game will start at 8:30 o'clock.

Other Conference Games

Hardin-Simmons will return to Canyon Saturday night for the second conference game this week. The Buffs easily handled the Cowboys last Friday night, but the team returns strengthened for another fray at Burton Gym.

Arizona State of Flagstaff will play the Buffs at Burton Gym next Tuesday night; Arizona State of Tempe will be here one week from tonight; and the last home game will be played Feb. 20 with Arizona University.

The Buffs then take to the road again, playing New Mexico University at Albuquerque Feb. 23; New Mexico A. & M. at Las Cruces Feb. 24; Texas College of Mines at El Paso, Feb. 25. The last game of the season will be played at Lubbock with Texas Tech on March 2. Many students of W. T. plan to go with the Buffs for this game.

Canyon Operating Largely Under the Old Sun Time

War Time went into effect Monday, but so far as Randall county is concerned, most of the people still operate by sun time.

In other words, in spite of the fact that clocks were advanced one hour Sunday night, very few business houses are running with the clock. The sun failed to co-operate with the new time, so most folks still operate with sun time.

School classes were advanced one hour and lunch time is taken at 1 o'clock instead of at 12 o'clock.

The bank, postoffice, utilities and federal offices are the only ones in Canyon operating under the new time.

It is likely that in another month the sun will be rising early enough sc that all may change to daylight savings.

Harrison Has Unusual Idea of War

Hal Harrison, son of Mrs. C. N. Harrison of Canyon, who is with the navy stationed on the Saratoga, has an unusual feeling about the war.

In a letter received by his mother Monday, he writes, "I still am all right and having a swell time." The letter was mailed from Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

George A. Farlow spent Thursday and Friday in Lubbock attending a refrigerator meeting.

Anti-Peddling Ordinance Killed By Case in Criminal Court Appeal

Case Appealed From Canyon When Four Magazine Peddlers are Fined for Soliciting

The anti-peddling ordinance passed several months ago by the City Commission of Canyon was knocked out by the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin last week.

L. G. Faulkner, Jr., and three other young men were arrested when they solicited magazine subscriptions. The ordinance prohibits uninvited calls of solicitors and peddlers to private homes. The men were tried in Canyon, found guilty and fined $10 each. A test case was made in the case of Faulkner. The firm for which he worked appealed the case. It is stated that other towns have passed similar ordinances to the one in Canyon, and for this reason the company was anxious by this case to knock out the ordinances of several other towns.

Judge Thomas L. Beauchamp wrote the decision of the court which killed Canyon's attempt to stop peddlers from molesting the citizens of Canyon. He stated that the city has authority to regulate such sales but the Legislature had not delegated power to citites to prohibit sales.

He added:

"The city of Canyon makes no distinctions and allows no opportunity for the party who has the sale of a useful and valuable article at a reasonable price and those who are able to present a worthless article and so paint it as to be able to attract the interest of the general public.

"The constant ringing of door bells, the nauseating insistence of unskilled salesmen, the audacity of some may not be the characteristics of all.

"It is a matter of common knowledge that many useful articles have no avenue through which to reach the general public save and except by specialty salesmen. Some might not be properly demonstrated except by one especially trained to do so. Some articles are of such use and in demand that the insistence of salesmen themselves is not to the public detriment.

"The Holy Bible is a notable example.

"It has been placed in many homes where it would not be except for solicitation of some one especially interested in presenting it."

Democrats Asked to Help Pay Debt National Party

The Democratic National Committee is broke and in debt. Texas Democrats have been asked to contribute $100,000 to pay off the debts of the party so that the campaign may be started to elect Congressmen this fall favorable to the President.

Raymond E. Buck of Fort Worth is the state chairman to raise this money. He asks all Randall county Democrats to make contributions, either mailing checks directly to him, or handing them to Clyde Warwick, who will forward the funds to Mr. Buck.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

WE CAN TAKE IT

Americans who thought that this was going to be a short, easy war, are now thoroughly disillusioned. Instead of having the Japs whipped by Christmas, 1942, it now looks like we would be lucky if we have them whipped by Christmas, 1943 or 1944.

Production of war machines will finally win the war—if we do not lose the war in the meanwhile. Unfortunately we have not been able up to this time to get production into full swing. It is said that Donald Nelson can do this job. If the administration will abolish the depression days idea of shorter hours and less work and junk all of the fancy ideas of social reforms in connection with labor, industry may be able to hit full stride by fall of this year.

Americans have listened to the boasting of our military men who have fed us on the idea that the Japs were an inferior people, fighting with inferior equipment. As a matter of fact, we are now told that Japan has been preparing for this war for many years before Hitler came onto the scene; that we have been furnishing the Japs with iron and oil and other necessary war materials throughout the years; that the Japanese have trained their youth as carefully as Hitler has developed the youth of Germany; that the Japs are a united nation, taught for a hundred years that the welfare of the nation was above the welfare of any individual in the nation.

The 7,000 to 9,000 miles of ocean separating us from the battle front is proving a hazardous barrier, and more time is being required to cover this stretch than the average layman ever conceived.

Americans now realize that we are up against a real war, and one that will take much sacrifice and will cost the lives of thousands of our young men.

But America has now steeled itself to take it. We can do without automobiles, tires and oil; we can use less sugar and wool and steel; we can buy bonds and help the Red Cross; we can save daylight, and raise a garden rather than spend the idle time playing golf; our young men are ready and anxious to join the armed forces—they are confident that they can whip the Japs if given an even break.

For the past two months the news has been bad. The brilliant stand of MacArthur and his valiant little band is about the only bright spot in the whole east. The Dutch and Australians are dong a good job, but are lacking in men and material. Singapore may fall for lack of men and guns. Bad news will continue for weeks, simply because the Japs were ready to strike while the Allies were unprepared. We failed to take our lesson from the European war.

The Japs are spreading—or attempting to spread — discontent among the Asiatics, and to boast about the weaknesses of the white men in the East. If China and India and the millions of other Asiatics fall into this trap, it will be too bad for us and a war of 5 to 10 years will result. Naturally the Japs hope to enslave all of Asia just as Hitler is dong in Europe. Neither Tokyo or Berlin has any respect for the other, and certainly have no confidence one in the other. But for the time being their palship works to the benefit of each. They are equally unscrupulous liars, but have a common purpose in overthrowing the Democracies.

America is awakening to the tremendous job which confronts us, and the nation is ready to take it, regardless of cost and inconvenience.

Newspaper correspondents in Berlin had a hard time getting news out of Germany. Every dispatch had to pass the censor, and naturally nothing was sent which was not complimentary to the Nazis. As a result the correspondents used adroit methods of telling American people what was going on. Frank King of the Associated Press in Dallas related Saturday at W. T. that he received a letter from a young newspaper man telling of the wonderful food to be had in Berlin before Germany declared war on the United States. After making extravagant statements as to what might be bought, he related that the citrus fruit in the markets reminded him of the vast groves around Amarillo. Naturally the censor did not know that there were no citrus trees within 900 miles of Amarillo, and the newspaper man thus told his friends that all his vivid description of food was bunk. That's one reason we discount all of the reports of reverses which come out of Berlin. The Nazis put out these reports to kid us—and too often we swallow the bait.

The spirit of derision never pays.

As a nation, the Germans have shown disdain for their neighbors. Now Russia is doing a pretty good job of taking the ego out of the lordly huns. Americans have bragged about our superiority over the Japs. But since Selective Service we find about 40% of our young men to be unfit for military service, while the Japs are proving to be a fearless fighting nation. Thinking well of oneself is fine, if it does not get you down. Americans now realize our mistakes of past years, and we are taking steps to correct these errors.

Congress has voted a pension upon members who are defeated or retire. Citizens over the nation are chagrined at such a thing when the nation is confronted by the heaviest taxes in the history of the nation and an uncertain future. "Bundles for Congress" is being organized in order to send congressmen glass eyes, crutches, cast-off clothing and other ridiculous items. The best way to sooth public indignation is for Congress to repeal this law before a majority of leaders are defeated at the polls.

All men 20 years to 44 years of age must register next Monday. The war is becoming very serious and it is proposed now to increase the army to more than 3,500,000 men this year. This means that scores of men from Randall county who are enjoying their homes and families today will be in military training before the end of the year. This is war, and war means destruction, waste and death.

Starvation in Greece is taking a heavy toll. That is just what Hitler planned for all conquered nations. Killing the population of European countries so that Germans will have plenty of room for expansion is the big idea of Hitler.

Story of Elizabeth Cox's Heritage Told In Magazine Article

A most unusual and colorful story appeared in the January 31, 1942 issue of the Saturday Evening Post, entitled "Joe Cox's Trees Live On" written by Andrew H. Hepburn.

It so happens that the story is about the great-grandfather, the grandfather and the uncle of Miss Elizabeth Cox of Canyon, and their succeeding struggles to keep their 253 acres of virgin forest intact and free of the woodsman's ax.

Joseph Cox, the great-grandfather of Miss Cox, settled on the tract, which is two miles south of Paoli, Indiana, in 1811. For more than 100 years the people of Paoli have known it as the Cox Woods. Soon it is to be renamed the Indiana Pioneer Mother's Memorial Forest.

The story tells, in interesting detail, about the devotion each succeeding generation of the Cox family had for the trees, and how Uncle Joseph Cox, who died in December 1940, refused to sell the tract or even a portion of it, even though he faced starvation. He was 83 at the time of his death and Miss Cox attended his funeral.

It was thought that the tract would surely have to be sold, which it was, but through miracles brought about by hard work on the part of a large group of Paoli folk, newspaper men and Forest Service experts, lumbermen and photographers, the Cox Woods will stand for generations to come as a tribute to the far-sighted pioneer family. The forest museum will no longer go by the name of Cox's woods since being taken over by the National Forest Service, but the name "Cox's Woods" will long be remembered to folk in Indiana and surrounding territory.

Babies Win Contests —Judged by Nuts

Beauty must be lasting or something like that, anyway Johnny Harter and Shannon Black are still in the races when it comes to contests.

Many years ago when these two lads were "babes in arms," they were contested with 20 other beautiful babies; and Johnny, the dear little thing, won first place. Of course, Shannon didn't do so badly.

Saturday at the Press Convention, both of these gents were elected officers. Hope they keep on going!

Perhaps the most outstanding youth organization during wartime or peace is the Boy Scouts of America.

During this impending world crisis, the Scouts are offering their services in every project that is available to them. Here in Canyon, as well as in every city in America, the troops consistently have gathered tin foil, old newspapers and magazines, tin cans or tubes, aluminum and many other defense necessities.

It certainly is urgent for everyone to do his part, large or small, in buying defense bonds, keeping in cheerful spirits and furthering the high American ideals. Setting excellent examples are the Scouts who abide by their Scout Laws of honesty, trustworthiness, loyalty, helpfulness, friendliness, courtesy, kindness, obedience, cheerfulness, thrift, bravery, celanliness and reverence.

Imagine over a million good turns being made every day! "A good turn daily," one of the Boy Scouts many mottos, is among their most noted and most extensive practiced deeds.

February 6-12 has been Boy Scout Week in which the Scouts have endeavored more than usual to promote all defense efforts, community spirit and good will over all the United States.

"Be prepared" is another slogan practiced by the troops. Not only are they prepared for immediate emergencies and hardships, but they are preparing to meet life in the world where each has a secret desire to make this a better place in which to live.

THE CALL TO THE COLORS IS A CALL FOR DOLLARS!

Dig deep. Strike hard. Our boys need the planes, ships, and guns which your money will help to buy.

Go to your bank, post office, or savings and loan association. Tell them you want to buy Defense Bonds regularly starting now.

John James Harter Wins Treasurer of PHSPA

Shannon Black, a junior in Tulia High School, was elected president of the Panhandle High School Press Association for next year when 250 journalist-members met for the eighth annual convention here at West Texas State College.

Other officers elected for the coming year were Porter Brooks of Dalhart, vice-president; John James Harter of Canyon, treasurer; and Nona Deen Rose of Hereford, secretary.

Music for the dance was furnished by Johnny Harter and his orchestra.

Various Meetings Held

Sectional meetings in the afternoon were directed by President Mickey Rafferty of Pampa High School. Assisting in these meetings were Roy Cheatham, advertising, with Leon Hughes of Lubbock as guest speaker; Harry M. Crenshaw of Southwestern Engraving Company in Dallas, Yearbooks; Jerry Malin of Amarillo, sports; and James Thomas Harp, last semester's editor of The Eagle's Tale, Canyon, photography with Fred Hart and Hud Prichard, Jr. as guest speakers.

Innocent Pupils Use Chalk Tray Seats

"Students, students everywhere," says Mrs. Guy B. Tabor as the students swarm into her room for the fifth period English class.

In order that Mrs. Tabor might have a conference period, the two sophomore English classes were combined. Adding chairs, desks and more chairs, the room, arranged to seat about thirty-five, now seats 47.

Standing at the very front of the room, one looks out into a sea of innocent, industrious, alert (?) faces.

Seated in alphabetical order, the students whose last name starts with "A" feel as if they sit in the chalk tray; while the ones at the last of the alphabet claim they need a telescope even to see Mrs. Tabor.

But regardless of the fact that it is hard to see Mrs. Tabor, one may rest assured that the students really learn their English!

"This is an excellent show, and we promise any one atending an evening full of laughs," said Clarence Thompson, president of the Senior Class.

Dan Cupid Prepares to Deliver Vicious Onslaught on Lovers

During the time when Romans put to death those who confessed believing in Christianity, there lived a Christian bishop named Valentine, who had been convicted of being a martyr. While awaiting his execution, he was denied the right to communicate with his family or friends; and he had little to occupy his long imprisonment except to cut small pieces of paper into different shapes and write messages on them. He persuaded the jailer's daughter to smuggle these messages out after his death; those who reached their destination were signed "Your Valentine."

At that time a Luperalia feast was held in February every year in honor of the heathen gods, and one of the amusements was the placing of young women's names, to be drawn by young men, into a box. The lady's name which the young man drew would be his lady love. The Christians, wanting to disregard the heathen gods but to continue the sports, decided to name February 14 as St. Valentine's Day as that was his birthday; and his name was among those on the saint list. They also wanted to remind people of Valentine's holy life; so names of saints and martyrs were placed in a box. The name they received was their valentine, and they must imitate that person's holy life all during the year. Later, the custom changed to placing names of living people in the box, and these became the "valentines." From that custom grew the sending of love messages and signing them "Valentine."

The United States first took note of the feast day when Miss Howland, a college girl at Mt. Holyoke, created the first American valentine in 1849. Although the valentine itself was much like the lace-paper sort of England, the valentine was accompanied by a ready-made verse printed on it. Her brother, who was a "traveling salesman," helped to make it so popular that his sister soon became the owner of a valentine factory which brought in $100,000 a year. Thus began the making of the modern valentines and the various ways of sending them.

From that time to the present day, elegant lithographed valentines which portray demure maids and church spires or wedding hints in the distance; ugly comics, cheap and unkind in humor; folder perfumed valentines, dainty-laced and silk-fringed valentines; and plain types full of sentiment, friendliness and humor have appeared according to centuries and the tastes of the people.

The last type, the plain valentine, grew in favor of the people and is sent to every member of the family from babe to grandparent. Along with the types of valentines arose the different methods of sending them; so a valentine may be received by the various mail services, singing and message telegrams, or a rather new style among the children by finding a valentine in the door after the giver has placed it there, rung the doorbell and skipped away.

Fashion valentines this year will have among the usual qualities a touch of cheerfulness for the many friends and sweethearts who are separated because of the war.

Young Chinese Couple Will Give Second Lyceum Number Tuesday

A PATRIOTIC POEM
By Lila Mae Lill

The eyes of the nation are upon you,
And you must do your part
In helping this war to win—
To fight with all your heart.

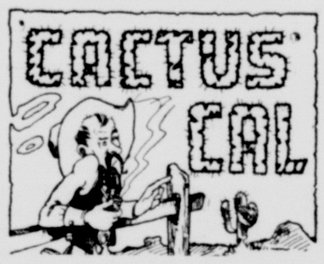

You can pledge your life
To help the U. S. A. stand,
To save the country of our pride
And be ready to give our hand.

You need not be dramatic
And wear a uniform,
But buy stamps as often as you can
And help keep the poor soldiers warm.

Whether you be a grown-up
Or only a small bewildered child,
You can do your share
In getting those Germans riled.

And when we get them riled
Our soldiers will stop those sneaks
From destroying our peace and quiet
Although it may take weeks.

So buy your share of defense stamps
While others of you buy bonds.
And we will so soon be rid
Of those foreign honyonds.

Last year Bradford Black was considered Canyon High's most eligible bachelor. Well, Bradford isn't here this year, but Oscar Schuette is. Is it because he's bashful, or does he have one of those "Mail Order" gals?

When Miss Grace Clark asked Joe Ziegler what the word "circumscribed" meant to him, he said it sounded like some big word someone thought up and wrote down—ah! sweet simplicity.

Boy, does it make you angry when you take your girl to Happy and she gets sort of flirty with another boy, just for fun? Well one boy did. Andy Walsh and Kathrine Davenport have drifted apart. (Get the point).

The seventh graders don't go in much for boy friends, but they have their ideals picked out. Normazelle Zachry likes Leroy Wooten; Jo Kathryn Hill likes Dana Persons and Charles SoRelle. Patsy Woods has to hold her heart when she sees Jack Farley. Norma Jo Curry has a budding romance with Bert Brown.

That old adage about blondes attracting brunettes isn't true when it comes to Peggy Bishir and Mickey Rafferty. Peggy really dressed up for the dance Saturday night. I wish Al Hunter could have been around the corner and seen how she wrapped the former PHSPA president around her little finger—which was nothing to compare with the way she swirled the new president, Shannon Black of Tulia. Shannon is also blond.

Probably as usual that old rhyme,
"Roses are red
Violets are blue"
will lead the sweet verses this year; but since so many boys are in the defense forces, the last lines may be
But sugar is scarce
And honey, so are you."

"A dillar, a dollar,
A ten o'clock scholar."
We're all ten o'clock scholars since this daylight saving time started. It's hard to decide whether one gets one hour of sleep or whether one loses an hour.

"Roses are red—
Violets are blue;"
This is getting old
So toodle-de-doo.

Freedom is the one purport . . . of all man's struggles, toilings, and sufferings, in this earth.—Carlyle.

The Philip Yung Lees, two of the best known Chinese in America, will present "China Sings On," the second lyceum number of the current school year, in the auditorium of Canyon High School, Tuesday, February 17, at 2 o'clock.

Chinese Is Singer

Philip Yung Lee was christened "Tao Yung," which means "Glorious Truth" in English. Sponsored in his career by a sister of Madame Shiang Kai Shek, Mr. Lee, according to Eugene Stinson, noted music critic, is the finest Chinese singer of this generation.

Mrs. Lee Is Famous

Mrs. Yung Lee, a graduate nurse of the Rockefeller Foundation Hospital in Peiping, accompanied the famous Iron Lung patient, Fred Snite, when he crossed the Pacific.

Philip Yung was born in Canton, China, and through missionaries, had his first contacts with Western music and began to study it along with native melodies.

Lee Is Authority

After he toured China's largest cities as a singer, he began an extensive study of Chinese music in many parts of the ancient land. He became an authority on Chinese music in his own country and a composer. He wanted to get to the United States to study Western music but feared his dream would not come true. However, fortune was with him, for one of the famous Soong sisters—a sister of Madame Chiang Kai Shek—decided to sponsor him on a trip to the United States.

Philip Yung Lee had become a Chinese missionary preacher and while studying voice in Chicago, he served as pastor of the only Chinese Christian Church in Chicago's great Chinatown. Music critics heralded him as the best Chinese singer they have heard in this generation. Eugene Stinson of the Chicago Daily News said, "His voice is a baritone with fine resonance and admirable pliancy — his diction would put most American singers to shame."

Later Yung Lee went back to China to serve as secretary of China's Christian Broadcasting Association and as program director of station XMHD in Shanghai. While there, he married a young lady whom he had met in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee will both take part in the presentation of this lecture program which they choose to call "China Sings On." It is not a musical program—but rather a lecture; however when discussing oriental music Mr. Lee will sing to his own accompaniment. In his lecture Mr. Lee will endeavor to show the many reasons for a communion of endeavor between the Orient and the Occident. He is highly appreciative of what the Western World has given his people.

Mrs. Lee will give a short talk on what a Chinese girl sees in the American girl. Chic, intelligent and lovely indeed, Mrs. Lee adds much to the program.

For the past two years, Mr. and Mrs. Lee have addressed clubs, schools and churches; and their repeat engagements have counted high.

"We are indeed fortunate and happy to be able to secure a lyceum number of such educational value and universal appeal to students," commented Superintendent J. B. Speer.

Eleven Seniors Begin Work Practicing Senior Play

Eleven seniors began work on the Senior play, "The Take-Off," after being chosen in senior play try-outs last Tuesday afternoon in the high school auditorium at 4 o'clock.

The seniors that were chosen are Clarence Thompson, Martha Oliver, Margaret Lou Ttate, Gordon Lynn Dickerson, Martha Lee Foster, Dan Cabe, Mildred Gill, Jackie Brian, Beulah Hammond and Avis Edna Campfield.

The play, under the direction of Miss Grace Clark, is scheduled for March 12.

Commencement Is Advanced Again

Fifteen Week Summer Decided

New Plan Means Whole Semester's Work May Be Done in Coming Terms

West Texas State's spring and summer calendar whirled dizzily while department heads and Dr. J. A. Hill considered ways to achieve a maximum war effort, and when it came to rest most of the spring holidays had been wiped out, commencement had been advanced, and the summer session had been increased to fifteen weeks.

A previous decision to adopt the quarter plan was rescinded and the semester basis will be continued.

Commencement day will be May 24, instead of June 1 as originally scheduled. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached at 12 o'clock noon, War time, and the commencement services will begin at 9:15 p. m., War time, of the same day. Local churches will have their evening services as usual but will dismiss in time for the commencement exercises.

The 15-week summer session, organized on the basis of a 9-week term and a 6-week term, will open May 27. The first term will last from May 27 to July 25 and the second from July 27 to September 5. The school week will be six days. During the first nine weeks, 3-semester hour classes will meet six days a week for one hour each day. Courses carrying credit of two semester hours, however, will meet an hour daily, six days a week, for six weeks. One-hour credit courses will meet either an hour daily six days a week for three weeks or three days a week for six weeks.

In the last six weeks, 2-semester hour courses will meet six days a week, one hour each day. Some 3-hour courses will be offered, either by teaching 1½ hours daily or "staggering" classes to provide more than six one-hour periods each week.

Students may, during this lengthened summer session, do approximately the maximum amount of work allowed during any regular semester. This arrangement will enable freshmen to take a long step toward their speeded graduation or completion of short courses. Teachers may accomplish more than has been possible for them. Men desiring courses to prepare them for military service will find a generous assortment of classes and an accelerated program. An unusually full curriculum will be offered in the coming summer.

Dahlia Society to Sponsor Stunt Party and Dance on February 21

Funds Needed for Planting Season on Trial Grounds —Roots Are Requested

For dahlia's sake, dignified Canyon business men and college instructors will drop their dignity on Saturday evening, February 21, at a stunt party and dance sponsored by the Southwestern Dahlia Society.

The place will be in the Administration Building and the tme 8:30 p. m. There will be dancing in the women's gymnasium. The stunts, offered by local clubs and organizations, will be staged in the main auditorium. Twenty-five cents will admit anybody to everything.

When the dahlia was selected as the campus flower by the Student Senate and the Southwest Dahlia Society was formed last year, Dr. J. A. Hill offered a trial ground space south of the flagpole. This has been prepared for planting under the direction of A. L. Tarleton, gardener, and Dr. A. M. Meyer, chairman of the grounds committee. Certain fertilizers, peat moss, markers, and records must be obtained before planting begins. The stunt party and dance will be given in an effort to raise funds for these necessities.

If approved in operation, the trial grounds will be the only one west of the Mississippi river. The Southwestern Dahlia Society, already affiliated with the American Dahlia Society, has 130 members, with 40 of them in Amarillo and others in Hereford, Dimmitt, and other cities.

Growing dahlias will be judged and scored frequently in order that the best varieties for this climate may be noted. For the trial grounds, roots of named dahlias are needed from a wide area. All dahlia growers are invited to contribute clumps. Seedlings which grade 85 per cent or above will be given certificates. The Southwestern Dahlia Society has much at stake, in that official approval would mean that large quantities of the flowers would be sent here for trial. Plantings will begin in April.

Levi Cole is president of the Society here, and R. E. Harter is secretary-treasurer. On the board of directors are Mrs. M. O. Carder, Ervin Miller, and W. F. Woodburn of Amarillo, in addition to local members.

The Amarillo Garden Club has made the trial grounds its project for 1942. Mrs. Wales Madden is president.

The trial grounds is on Highway 217, which is traveled by 40,000 persons who visit Palo Duro State Park every year. Part of the dahlias will form the maroon and white combination of college colors.

Cowboy Freshmen Defeat W. T. Frosh Here on Friday

The Freshmen had been doing all right away from home in the Amarillo City Independent League, but when they came home before Canyon fans their showing weakened. The Hardin-Simmons Frosh won 33 to 23, in a slow game played as an opener for the Border Conference game following.

The "Little Buffs" started a scoring spree with 13 minutes left in the last half and brought the score to 17 to 24 in favor of Hardin-Simmons. The Cowboy juniors got impatient and ran their total to 28 before Curtis Kelley of the local frosh could sink two in a row to make the margin closer at 21 to 28.

From then on it was a replica of some varsity games between the two schools as the visiting freshmen held the ball, taking only cinch shots to win the game 33-23.

Cowboys Learn Buff Strength

Returning Tall Men Beat Hardin-Simmons 87-30 Here Friday Night

Whether fans at the Hardin-Simmons game were properly thrilled Friday night depends upon the point of view. If seeing the team that has been popularized before the whole nation is worth the price of admission, then the time was well spent.

But the Buffalo regulars played only 26 minutes, or slightly more than half of the game. By the time fifteen minutes had gone by from the starting whistle, the Buffaloes had pounded through 32 points while Hardin-Simmons Cowboys were making nine.

Coach Al Baggett sent in a complete new team. This second five scored 12 points in the remaining five minutes while the Cowboys were struggling along with one field goal and a free shot. Half time score was 44 to 12.

The second half of the Conference tilt was a thriller show. This time, after only eleven minutes had elapsed, that second five was in and outscoring the visitors. The score, at the time of this substitution was 72 ot 25. By the end of the game, it was 87 to 30.

The long arms of the Buffaloes seemed to surround any and all Cowboys when they attempted to shoot.

One fan in the crowd, obviously Abilene inclined, said, "There's no use of the Cowboys trying to tie the ball up; the Buffaloes get it anyway."

An unstoppable combination appeared when Price Brookfield, and Bill and Frank Stockman started down the court on a fast break. That fan and his companion, mentioned a paragraph back, had something to say about this, too, particulary when Frank Stockman would fake two or three fake passes while in the air and wind up the leap by making the shot himself.

Standouts on the Cowboy five were Steele, Rattan, and Osborne. Steele made nine points and the latter two made seven each.

Jerry Malin Talks To Lions Club at Thursday Luncheon

Amarillo Daily News sports editor and "greatest friend of the Buffs," Jerry Malin talked to the Canyon Lions Club Thursday noon at the regular weekly luncheon.

Milton Morris, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Malin dwelled at length on the gentleman-like behaviour of the Buffaloes and the wonderful reception they received on their trip to New York. He also discussed their recognition as the "Wonder" team and the tallest basketeers in the world.

The sports editor stated that the invitation of the Buffaloes to play at Madison Square Garden was the greatest athletic achievement for any team. It was in this game that they acquired the title "Wonder Team," receiving recognition for their ability as well as their height.

Malin introduced Al Baggett as the man who always thinks of his team first. Baggett mentioned that there is a chance of the Buffs being invited to return to Madison Square Garden this spring.

Guests at the meeting were Captain Frank Stockman of the Buffaloes, Coach Baggett, Jerry Malin, Claude White, Dr. Roy L. Johnson, and Harris M. Cook, all of Canyon, W. J. Lites of Dallas, and J. Lowell Ponder of Plainview.

Rotary Club Program on China—MacAlpin Makes the Talk

Archie MacAlpin was in charge of the Rotary Club program Tuesday, talking on China, its government, religion and families.

To open the program a singing contest was held between the Blues and Golds, the two attendance teams of the club. Cigars were passed to the winning Blues.

China is an ancient people, stated the speaker. Its origin is mythical. Pre-historic cultures are found in China. Various dynasties have ruled since the time of Christ.

The family is the ruling unit of government. The family includes ancestors back three generations. Family honors and disgraces are shared by all members. With this idea, people had little to do with government.

Various influences of religion were traced by the speaker. The number of Christians is unimportant, but Christianity has had great influence in the improvement of schools and hospitals. Most of the leaders today are Christians.

The Chinese have spirits in everything. They are real to the people. Ancestory worship leads to the idea that the "old ways are the good ways." Women are little more than slaves; they must obey their fathers, then their husbands and even their sons.

Since the invasion of Japan, there has been a need for a central government.

A letter was read from the Amarillo Rotary Club inviting Rotarians to a free club institute on Feb. 16, 23, March 2, 9, at which times speakers of national reputation will discuss current subjects of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Albers and children and Mrs. E. A. Michael and Sandra, spent the week end visiting in Dumas.

Without free speech no search for truth is possible; without free speech no discovery of truth is useful; and the nations no longer march forward toward the nobler life which the future holds for man. Better a thousandfold abuse of free speech than denial of free speech. The abuse dies in a day, but the denial stays the life of the people, and entombs the hope of the race. —Charles Bradlaugh.

A Diety believed is joy begun;
A Diety adored is joy advanced;
A Diety beloved is joy matured.
Each branch of piety delight inspires.—Young.

Law Prof.: Is a marriage contract binding?
